

I do not believe that it is in the public interest for large media conglomerations such as Sinclair to use public airways as a partisan soapbox to shape the face of this or any election. They are a prime example of why we need stonger media rules. Thank you.